Nature of Activity: Trade and Consumer Fair Short Description: The ASEAN Tourism Forum (ATF) 2018 is a cooperative regional effort to promote Association of the Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) region as one tourist destination. It took place at the Chiang Mai International Exhibition and Convention Centre (CMECC), Thailand from 22-26 January 2018. Each year, the hosting of ATF is rotated among the member countries (Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, and Vietnam). In 2018, ATF was held and hosted in Thailand. This is the 37th edition of ATF since its inauguration in Malaysia in 1981. This year's theme, Sustainable Connectivity, Boundless Prosperity, reflects the Thai government's awareness of ASEAN as a community of opportunity and people-centeredness for a better livelihood under the mechanism of sustainable development. By connecting in all aspects, we create the economic and social opportunities for our people, and would lead to reduction of development gap between all member countries. In addition, the border cities that are being administered to prevent and reduce negative impacts are the consequences of boundless economic connectivity and prosperity. TPB participated with a 270 sqm peninsula booth and 28 private sector companies and TPB (as a seller) joined in to support this event.

February 3, 2018 in order to meet the 4:30 a.a. Agreed call time come February 4, 2018, at Alaminos Tour Information Center near Lucap wharf where the outrigger boats will be stationed. Quezon Island is the rendezvous point of all the organizers and crew, as well as the visitors. The Project Officer had a quick coordination meeting with the working crew and Tour Guides who will be accompanying the visitors in their island hopping activities. By 6:30 a.m. the coordination meeting was done and Guard declared a gale warning. The ship, MS artania at that time was already swelling waves prevented the tender boats to even come near the ship to fetch the visitors. The Coast guard waited and observed for about 15 more minutes but the winds and waves only grew stronger and by 7:30 a.m. the event was officially canceled. The visitors weren't able to disembark in Pangasinan. The Project officer, and the tour operator headed back to Manila to prepare for the morning flight to Coron, Palawan to facilitate the third and last leg of the familiarization trip, and the students together with the organizing committee went on their separate ways. Intramuros and Paco Manila The second leg of the familiarization trip was scheduled February 5, 2018 in Intramuros and Paco Manila. The project officers assigned for this leg are; Ms. Phoebe Co and Mr Lawrence Español for the group assigned to visit

Intramuros, and Mr. Allan Esteban for the group assigned to visit Bahay Aruga in Paco, Manila. The two groups left the port approximately 9:00 a.m. and went to their separate destinations. The activity set for the Intramuros group is to learn Basic arnis, while the group going to Bahay Aruga is set to immerse with the children of the shelter. The guests were met and greeted by one of the cultural presenters - in full traditional Maria Clara costume which delighted and gave the guests their first “wow” moment for the day. The project officers were requested by the Director to stay distant the shooting ground as they would be taking wide angles and panoramic shots to capture the beauty of Intramuros, apart from the performers. After couple instructions to the performers they started formal shooting of the dance presentation from different angles and perspectives. The Intramuros group finished around 4 in the afternoon. On the other hand the Bahay Aruga group arrived in their destination around 10:00 a.m. they were welcomed by Ms. Mayett Bonilla, the Manager of the shelter. The group immediately immersed themselves with the children; talking with them and playing with them, making the children feel wanted and forget

Tribal Group Mr. Arcenas and the group went to the place. They all rode the commissioned boat and went to Kayangan Lake to meet the tribe but the Chieftain informed Mr. Arcenas that the tribe has gone hunting up the mountains, with no definite time of returning so without telling about the situation, Mr. Arcenas decided to invite the group onto another location where he is very sure to find another group of Tagbanua tribe in Lajala Island. It was a 10-minute boat ride from Kayangan Lake to Lajala Island. The group was welcomed by the tribe leader in Lajala. Upon seeing the camera carried by the film crew. Mr. Arcena was requested that he talk with the tribe members first to ask for their individual permission together with their families. The group was very happy and satisfied with the experience they have captured and documented. Hot Spring Group The Hot Spring group was accompanied by Mr. Monchin Ormido, a local guide from K tours - the appointed tour coordinator in Coron. Upon arriving, the group did not waste any time, they immediately got on their swimming shorts and tried the hot spring. The grouped loved hot spring in Maquinit and they relaxed and enjoyed until 2 p.m.

They head on the Island. The group rode a huge outrigger road from BBL to South Cay. Everyone was having fun at first but after a while suddenly there came about a strong winds and massive waves, it was something that was totally unexpected. The entire trip took almost 2 hours, and the entire 2 hours was a very bumpy ride. Luckily nobody got sea-sick, and that everyone was safe. Around 2:30 p.m when the grouped arrived in South Cay Island. The dancers selected a good site on the island where the filming will be taken. When the site has been found, and all of the dancers were ready, and everything was all set. A couple of retakes from different angles and the majestic beach and nearby islands as their backdrops, and it was all that was needed to make the entire group and film crew happy.
