CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (CSR) 2021

KUBO PROJECT

13 December 2021

I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On 07 November 2021, the Tourism Promotions Board's Office of the Chief Operating Officer (OCOO) received a request for donation either in cash or in kind from Mr. Dwight O. Salac of Pink Lily Travel. This was for the "Kubo of Future and Beyond" project, his personal initiative for the community surrounding Bulabog Beach in Boracay. The ultimate beneficiaries of the said project are the school children and tourism workers of the Bulabog Beach community in Boracay.

In order to accommodate Mr. Salac's request and at the same time help unload PGSD's excess inventory, CPBDD decided to donate items in the form of school supplies, umbrellas, and raincoats for the schoolchildren and T-shirts for the tour marketers, boat men and vendors. Per Mr. Salac's request and in the interest of administrative and logistical convenience, these items were delivered directly to Levantin Resort in Bulabog Beach, care of its owner Ms. Dian Tobes.

The summary of TPB's donated items is as follows:

Description	Quantity
Backpack bag (foldable) with TPB logo/branding	50pcs
Notebooks with TPB logo/branding	100pcs
T-shirt with TPB logo/branding	100pcs
Umbrella with TPB logo/branding	50pcs

The above items were packed in four (4) boxes. The first three boxes were picked up by LBC Express on 26 November 2021 from the TPB office and received at Levantin Resort Boracay on 30 November 2021.*

The last box was brought to LBC Express Banawe, QC branch last 07 December 2021 and received at Levantin Resort on 10 December 2021.*

II. BACKGROUND

During a visit to the island of Boracay, Mr. Salac stayed at Levantin Resort, which has been supporting the children of the Bulabog community since before the pandemic by allowing them to use their Wifi connection for online learning. As early as sunrise, Mr. Salac observed the children already lining up in the sand in front of the resort, striving to connect to the Internet so they can be present in their online class. As the day progressed, the oppressive heat from the sun was becoming unbearable but the children did not mind. They tried to squeeze themselves in the shade cast by the coconut trees, and when it rained, they made do with plastic bags to protect their gadgets.

Thus, the inspiration came to Mr. Salac to build even a little hut or “kubo” for these unfortunate kids. With enough resources, he decided to partner with Levantin Resort and request permission to build a little “Bahay Kubo/Small Shed” where the students could sit and study in a proper and more comfortable environment. Mr. Salac understood how difficult life can be since he also came from a poor family. He recalled that during high school, he used to walk two hours each way just to get to school. He saw himself in the children of Bulabog community, and he wanted very much to ease their hardship in any way he could.

For the meantime and while the plan for building the Kubo is being finalized, Mr. Salac, in partnership with TPB, was able to provide various school supplies to the children of Bulbog during a gift-giving event last 13 December 2021 at Levantin Resort. Recipients included the tourism workers within the community who were also given T-shirts and umbrellas.

III. OBJECTIVES

- To provide support to the educational needs of the schoolchildren of Bulabog community
- To provide support to the tourism workers within the Bulabog community in the conduct of their tourism-related means of livelihood
- To provide Christmas cheer and hope during the Yuletide season
- To comply with GCG Memorandum Circulars 2012-07 and 2015-07 requiring GOCC's to include their interaction with communities and other Corporate Social Responsibility activities in their adherence to the Code of Corporate Governance

IV. LOGISTICS

Project Officer for this CSR activity was Mr. Arturo Z. Gatus who was ably assisted by CPBDD employees Ms. Sheryll Karunungan, Ms. Mariel Dimaano and Ms. Chelsea

Luna, while packing of the donated items was done in close coordination with PGSD. Total expenses representing payment to LBC Express Inc. for courier services amounted to Php12,450.00 (twelve thousand and four hundred fifty pesos).

V. LESSONS ("AHA" MOMENT)

- The youth are indeed the future of our country. Since education is a basic right, the state must ensure that every Filipino child gets the opportunity to avail of the best education available.
- Our individual tourism workers also need support, mostly financial. Aside from its corporate stakeholders, TPB can set aside a portion of the corporate operating budget to help our country's tourism front liners.

V. Recommendations (Strategic/Tactical)

- When doing a market study of suppliers, ensure that we consider the factor of fast turn-around time and SLA (Service Level Availability) aside from cost.
- When donating goods, prioritize the overstocked items that also meet the requirements of our recipients in the inventories of both CPBD and PGSD.

VI. ANNEXES

- a. Approved Memo by COO (with Letter of Request from Mr. Dwight O. Salac)
- b. Official Receipts from LBC Express Inc.
- c. Photo Documentation

Atty. Maria Anthonette C. Velasco-Allones
Chief Operating Officer (COO)
Philippines Tourism Promotion Board
Manila, Philippines

Dear (COO) Atty. Maria Anthonette C. Velasco-Allones,

Maligayang Araw at Mabuhay! I'd like to start my letter by sharing you about my experience and how I came engaged in this initiative.

During my recent visit to the iconic island of Boracay, I was lucky to stay at Levantin Resort, which has been supporting the children of the Bulabog community since before the pandemic by giving their WI-FI connection for online learning. And I'm fortunate to have met these great children who are driven and ready to complete their education. When I got up one morning to see the sunrise, it's true that kids are lining up on the sand in front of the resort, striving to connect to the internet so they can be present in their online class, and I'm moved and inspired by their passion.

Time passed, the heat from the sun was already hurting my skin, but they were still there, trying to squeeze themselves in the shadow cast by the coconut trees, rain began to fall, but they were all still determined to finish their session using a plastic bag to cover their gadget, I felt hurt in my heart.

Despite the fact that Boracay is the best island in the world, there are still those that struggle in their everyday lives. Youth is our future, and these children I witnessed are our future. We must safeguard them and show that we have their back. If I only had enough money to build a little Kubo for them to have a shed and a nice place to stay, but at the time, I could only afford to host them for breakfast. I continued to see more students performing their module in the center of the heat of the sun after that morning.

Life is not easy, but we are here to encourage them believe that good people exist and that they are not alone. I've been thinking about how I can help all night, which leads me to the project Kubo of Future. If I have enough resources, I will partner with Levantin Resort and request permission to place and build a little Bahay Kubo/Small Shed where students could sit and study right immediately. Because I understand how difficult life can be, when I was in high school and came from a poor family, I used to walk two hours each way just to get to school, learn, and have a better future. I saw myself in them, and I want to ease their hardship in any way I can.

With this, I write to respectfully seek a donation to the Kubo of Future and Beyond initiative. Our main objective is to build a Small Bahay Kubo or shed, however if funds are insufficient, we will use the collection by:

1. School supplies, umbrellas, and raincoats, as well as some gadgets for individuals in need
2. To celebrate their efforts, we will hold a Christmas party for them (Social distancing event)
3. Our primary objective is the Kubo of Future.
4. Will bring clothing if there are any left. During the lockdown and closure, people had a difficult time surviving on a daily basis; many didn't even have adequate clothing.

We want organized the event on or before by December 13, 2021, in order to give them the feel and spirit of the holiday season.

I am not alone in this endeavor; Levantin Resort, C&B Travel Boracay, Plato D' Boracay, and BIBATOA are all on board, and I hope you will join us in showing our youth that we are here for them!

We would like to invite you to make a significant contribution to our mission to improve student learning outcomes, happiness, and moral support to our Bulabog Boracay youth, which is critically valuable during this crisis, and for building more of Kubo in the Philippines for the use of communities.

We would like to ask if you can share with us through your satellite office Boracay;

- 50 pcs of Backpack bag with your branding for students
- 50 pcs of Note book and pens with your branding for students
- 50 pcs of T-shirt with your branding for our Tour marketers, Bangkero and vendors in Boracay
- We will appreciate if you can share more for us to reach more students and vendors.

Please contact me if you require any other information. This is a personal campaign, any contribution or even prayers are welcome. And we can only provide a personal acknowledgement receipt for every collection we receive. We will be completely transparent in all transactions, and all receipts will be stored in a passwordprotected online drop box for those who want a copy.

Together with this letter are some photos and my social media post when I visited Bulabog, Boracay.

I am positively looking forward for any response you will send us.

Stay safe and may God bless us all!

Respectfully yours,

Dwight Ochoa Salac
A simple Filipino Citizen.

Goodpm sir Art, sorry for late reply, just got home.
Regarding the delivery, may we just request to address it directly to the venue of our event, the Levantin resort, is also one of the initiator of this good-will and was the inspiration of the campaign as mentioned in our letter. We are just thinking that it will be logistically-wise if the item is already at the venue.

For delivery:

Ms. Dian Tobes
Owner
Levantin Resort Boracay
