

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

SUPPLY AND DELIVERY OF FORM CREATOR SOFTWARE

1. BACKGROUND

Recognizing that the use of paper-based forms for collecting responses and conducting surveys is inefficient, ineffective, and prone to errors, the TPB uses online/web-based forms to address these challenges.

While there are free online form tools available on the internet, most of them lack features and functionalities needed by the TPB such as condition-based questions and analytical reports.

The procurement of professional online form creator software is therefore needed to address the challenges of paper-based forms and to satisfy the requirements of project officers in creating sophisticated online forms to gather data/responses.
