COMPREHENSIVE TRAVEL INSURANCE FOR PHILIPPINE PAVILION STAFF TO BE DEPLOYED IN OSAKA, JAPAN WORLD EXPO 2025 OSAKA, JAPAN (13 April to 13 October 2025)

I. BACKGROUND

A World Expo is an event that brings together people and innovations from around the world in an effort to address issues facing humankind on a global scale.

For 2025, the World Expo will be held in Yumeshima, Osaka, Japan, from 13 April to 13 October 2025 for which the Philippine government will participate.

The Japan Association for Expo 2025, the Organizer of the Project, expects the participation of more than 130 countries and 15 international organizations in the Expo.

The Office of the President has designated the Philippine Department of Tourism (PDOT) as the lead implementing agency for Expo 2025, and Chairperson of the Philippine Organizing Committee (POC), through Administrative Order (A.O.) No. 7. Under the AO, the PDOT is tasked to undertake and oversee the overall preparations and day-to-day operations relative to the Philippines' participation in Expo 2025.

Following the confirmation of the PDOT as the lead agency for the implementation of the Expo 2025, it has issued Department Order (DO) No. 023-0042, designating the Tourism Promotions Board (TPB) as the Agency in charge of spearheading the Secretariat of the Project.
